The Pixformance concept

The Pixformance Station

OUR STATION makes functional movement training a unique experience for everyone. The freestanding station includes over 150 exercises. The camera with built-in depth sensor scans 26 joints of the body. Through complex motion analysis with real-time feedback, your employees can even move more effectively. This improves coordination, strength, endurance, speed and mobility.

THE PIXFORMANCE STATION WAS DEVELOPED by experts in science and technology and specialists from the health and fitness industry. The goal was to make functional training comfortable for all fitness levels. The 3D sensor technology of the Pixformance Station is constantly being developed by our developers together with experts from sports and medicine to make motion detection even more precise.

The Pixformance Online Platform

USE the Pixformance Online Platform to create customized exercises and training sessions for individuals and groups or to choose a plan created by experts.
